

eLibrary Solutions for Students & Teachers vs. Google and Web Surfing

eLibrary Content and Tools for 21 st Century Teaching and Learning	Google and Web Surfing for Content and Tools for Students & Teacher for Inquiry-Based Learning
Why do so many teachers and students rely on Google and other Internet surfing when their ProQuest library digital solutions are custom designed to support K-12 teaching and learning? Don't they know that	Do professionals such as doctors, lawyers, and engineers Google for information to service clients? Don't these professionals rely on CUSTOM databases and publications to keep them current and help analyze and solve client problems?
100% of eLibrary resources are K-12 curriculum-relevant, standards-based, and access seven copyrighted, publisher quality media types, including multimedia, and editorially selected websites.	Less than 10% of Google is K-12 curriculum-relevant, and is limited to websites; most are consumer oriented, distracting to students, and many are from sources that are questionable or even inappropriate.
BookCart Lesson Planning Tool helps teachers to create custom learning activities that integrate teacher-selected articles and websites that help differentiate instruction.	NO equivalent teacher tool provided.
Teachers can access hundreds of free eLibrary-specific inquiry-based learning activities and over 800 BookCart learning activities that integrate critical thinking.	Google can lead you to lesson plan websites, but busy teachers will have to do the necessary selection, adaptation, and correlation to standards.
Lexile reading level scores for articles help teachers to guide students (especially ELL and other challenged readers) to articles that they can read and understand.	NO method for searching for or adjusting results to student reading levels.
AP students have access to hundreds of scholarly journals and primary sources (History Study Center & ProQuest Learning: Literature)—eLibrary Curriculum Edition.	NO access to copyrighted publisher created or selected articles and multimedia. Website information only.
Integrated Reference tool, English to Spanish dictionary, and Translation tool, help English Language Learners to succeed more quickly with reading and language arts development.	Translation, Reference, and Audio Reader tools provided.
21st Century Skills/Web 2.0 tools integrated for student to organize and present what they learn: Citation Generator, Timelines, Slideshow Maker, My List, and My eLibrary.	Google provides a variety of student tools but they're not integrated. into specific content for studentNo publications or publication browsing feature.
State Standards Search tool helps teachers to locate and save results correlated to their state's standards.	NO equivalent teacher tool provided
Free online training, CEU eligible self-paced online PD, and fee based in-person PD helps teachers to create effective inquiry-based learning activities that integrate 21st Century Skills with critical thinking.	NO equivalent teacher training options provided
Thousands of Essential Pages provide editorially selected content and multimedia galleries for the most popular research topics/issues assigned.	NO equivalent student and teacher content feature.
Smart searching by media type, sorting by Lexile, date and 4 other criteria, helps students and teachers to find the best resources quickly.	NO equivalent student and teacher tools provided.
Curriculum guides show teachers how to use information to develop critical thinking and problem solving skills.	No equivalent resources for teachers to use.
Student-safe publisher quality content eliminates the need for constant teacher "snooepervision" and discipline problems. No time wasting distractions. Teacher freed to support learning. Less searching = more learning.	Supervision a must to avoid inappropriate resources and attendant discipline problems. No time for coaching and student support..
 THE ALL-NEW ELIBRARY. "5 STARS!" MMIS, MAY/JUN 09	